Food Reserve Act, 1995

Chapter 225

Commenced on 28 April 1995

[This is the version of this document at 31 December 1996.]

[Act No. 12 of 1995; Statutory Instrument 105 of 1995]

An Act to establish the Food Reserve Agency and define its powers and functions; to establish a national food reserve; to transfer to the Government certain assets, rights, liabilities and obligations of Nitrogen Chemicals of Zambia Limited and Zambia Co-operative Federation Limited; to repeal the National Agricultural Marketing Act 1989; and to provide for matters connected with or incidental to the foregoing.

Part I – Preliminary

1. Short title

This Act may be cited as the Food Reserve Act.

2. Interpretation

In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—

‘Agency’ means the Food Reserve Agency established by section three;

‘Chairperson’ means the person elected as Chairperson of the Agency under paragraph two of the Schedule;

‘Committee’ means a committee established under paragraph five of the Schedule;

‘Company’ means Nitrogen Chemicals of Zambia Limited, a company registered under the Companies Act;

‘designated commodity’ means any cereal, oilseed, stockfeed and other agricultural food commodity designated under section six as essential for the food security of the country;

‘Federation’ means Zambia Co-operative Federation Limited registered under the Co-operative Societies Act;

‘marketing season’ means the period from the 1st May in one year to the 30th April of the succeeding year;

‘member’ means a member of the Agency, or a committee;

‘national food reserve’ means the national food reserve established under section five;

‘Processor’ means a person who converts or transforms, on a commercial scale, any designated commodity into a finished or semi-finished product;

‘producer’ means a person who grows a designated commodity;

‘property’ means movable or immovable assets;
‘purchaser’ means a person who directly or indirectly purchases for himself, or for another person a designated commodity;

‘repealed act’ means the National Agricultural Marketing Act;

[Act No. 19 of 1989]

‘trader’ means a person who, as broker, dealer, marketing company, or other purchaser, acquires any designated commodity from a producer or any other person through purchases or otherwise, for the purpose of resale;

‘Vice Chairperson’ means the person elected as Vice-Chairperson of the Agency under paragraph two of the Schedule.

Part II – The Food Reserve Agency

3. Establishment of the Agency

(1) There is hereby established the Food Reserve Agency, which shall be a body corporate with perpetual succession and a common seal, capable of suing and of being sued in its corporate name, and shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, have power to do all such acts and things as a body corporate may by law do or perform.

(2) The provisions of the Schedule shall apply to the Agency.

4. Functions of the Agency

(1) The functions of the Agency shall be to do all such things as are necessary for the administration of this Act.

(2) Notwithstanding the generality of subsection (1) the Agency shall—

(a) administer the national food reserve;

(b) establish and operate a market information system for agricultural food commodities and agricultural inputs;

(c) promote the use of the weighing and grading standards approved under the Weights and Measures Act and the Standards Act for designated commodities;

[Cap. 403; Cap. 404]

(d) establish and conduct a programme under which storage facilities owned by the Government may be leased or sold;

(e) establish a programme under which traders and processors shall register and report, for statistical purposes, information on the stocks of agricultural commodities handled or held by them;

(f) assess storage requirements for marketing a designated commodity and plan for their establishment as needed; and

(g) undertake such other functions as the Minister may assign to the Agency.

(3) The Agency may by resolution delegate any of the powers and functions of the Agency to any person in the Agency or to any committee established by the Agency or, with the consent of the Minister, to any other person.
(4) Except for such actions as may be necessary to administer the national food reserve, the Agency shall not purchase, import, sell, or trade in any agricultural commodity.

(5) Notwithstanding any provision of any other law, the Agency may enter into a contract with any person for the purpose of performing any of its functions under this Act.

Part III – The national food reserve

5. National food reserve

(1) There shall be a national food reserve which shall, subject to this Act, be administered by the Agency.

(2) The purpose of the national food reserve shall be to—

(a) ensure a reliable supply of designated commodities for the country;
(b) meet local shortfalls in the supply of a designated commodity;
(c) meet such other food emergencies caused by drought or flood, or by such other natural disaster, for the purposes of this Act, as may be declared by the President;
(d) correct problems relating to the supply of designated commodities which result from the manipulation of prices or monopolistic trading practices.

6. Designation of commodities

(1) The Minister shall designate, prior to October 31st of each year, any cereal, oilseed, stockfeed and any other agricultural food commodity that he considers essential for the food security of the country.

(2) In the case of the marketing season in which this Act comes into force, the Minister shall make the designation referred to in subsection (1), not later than thirty days after the coming into force of this Act.

7. Purchase and importation of designated commodities

(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Agency may purchase from the domestic market or import any designated commodity for the purposes of the national food reserve.

(2) The Agency shall not purchase any designated commodity unless it announces in the Gazette and the print media, prior to the 1st of May of each year, its plan for purchases of each designated commodity in the following marketing year.

(3) The plan referred to in subsection (2) shall include the—

(a) quantity of the designated commodity the Agency plans to purchase;
(b) method of procurement and payment for the designated commodity by the Agency; and
(c) places at which the Agency plans to make such purchases.

(4) The Agency shall announce and publish in the Gazette and the print media prior to the 31st of October of each year, the procedure to be followed in buying a designated commodity which it needs to import or when buying locally for the next twelve months; and different procedures may be published for different areas.
8. Sale of designated commodities

(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Agency may sell any designated commodity in the national food reserve to meet—

(a) local shortfalls in the supply of the commodity;

(b) other food emergencies caused by drought, flood, or other natural disaster.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the Agency shall not sell any designated commodity in the national food reserve unless it publishes in the Gazette and in the print media, prior to the 31st of October of each year, the procedure to be followed during the following twelve months in selling any designated commodity held in the national food reserve; and different procedures may be published for different areas.

(3) Whenever a designated commodity is stored as part of the national food reserve, the Agency may sell, quantities of the designated commodity in different places to the extent necessary to properly handle, rotate, distribute, and position the designated commodity as part of the national food reserve.

(4) Subject to subsection (3) any purchase to offset a sale of a designated commodity shall be made as soon as possible following the sale.

9. Receipt of designated commodity and non-designated commodity

The Agency may receive any designated commodity or any commodity not designated under this Act as part of the national food reserve donated by any person, body, Government or institution:

Provided that the Agency may sell any commodity not designated under this Act as a designated commodity and shall purchase quantities of the designated commodity to properly rotate, distribute and position the designated commodity as part of the national food reserve.

Part IV – Market information system for designated commodities

10. Market information system

(1) There shall be a market information system for each designated commodity operated by the Agency for the benefit of the consumer and any person engaged in the production, marketing, and processing of that commodity.

(2) The Agency in establishing the market information system, shall consult with and obtain the advice of, a representative of the consumer, producer, trader, processor, and any person, engaged in the production, marketing and processing of a designated commodity.

11. Collection and dissemination of market information

The Agency shall collect and disseminate marketing information, including information on domestic and export sales of a designated commodity, for the purpose of meeting the requirements of the consumer, producer, trader, processor and any other person engaged in the production, marketing and processing of such commodity.
Part V – Weighing and grading standards for designated commodities

12. Standard of designated commodity

The Agency shall consult the Zambia Bureau of Standards, as provided for under the Weights and Measures Act and Standards Act, in developing and improving standards of quality, condition, quantity and grade of a designated commodity, so as to encourage uniformity and consistency.

[Cap. 403; Cap. 404]

13. Offence and penalty for misrepresenting grade

(1) Any person who knowingly misrepresents the grade of a designated commodity contrary to established standards shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable, upon conviction, to a fine not exceeding ten penalty units.

(2) Any person who fails to pay the fine under subsection (1) shall in addition to that penalty be prohibited from participating in the marketing or processing of any designated commodity for a period not exceeding three years.

Part VI – Registration of traders and processors

14. Registration as a dealer

(1) Every trader and processor shall register annually as a dealer in a designated commodity.

(2) The Agency shall keep a register of traders and processors.

15. Registration fees

(1) A trader and a processor shall pay such annual registration fees as the Minister may, by statutory instrument, prescribe.

(2) Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, the registration fees collected by the Agency shall form part of the revenue of the Agency.

16. Standards of conduct of traders and processors

The Minister may, by statutory instrument, and after consultation with the Agency, establish rules and regulations regarding the standards of conduct of every registered trader and processor in relation to the trade in any designated commodity.

17. Reports by traders and processors

(1) A trader or a processor registered as a dealer in a designated commodity shall provide to the Agency information regarding the price and stock of a designated commodity handled or held by him during the period designated by the Agency.

(2) A report under this section shall be—
   (a) in such form as may be prescribed by the Agency;
   (b) approved by the Minister; and
18. Penalty for failing to register or comply with standards of conduct

(1) A trader or a processor who fails to register, or who, if registered, fails to comply with the standards of conduct established by the Minister shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable upon conviction to a fine not exceeding ten penalty units.

(2) Any person who fails to pay the fine under subsection (1) shall in addition to that penalty be prohibited from participating in the marketing or processing of any designated commodity for a period not exceeding three years.

19. Power to inspect records

Subject to the Agricultural Credits Act, the Agency shall, prior to purchasing a designated commodity, inspect all relevant records to determine if the trader or processor selling the designated commodity has previously pledged the commodity as security or whether a charge or lien has been registered under that Act.

[Cap. 224]

20. Penalties for disregarding registered charge or lien

Any registered trader and processor who sells any designated commodity in disregard of a registered charge or lien on the designated commodity referred to in section nineteen shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to a penalty under the Agriculture Credits Act.

[Cap. 224]

Part VII – National food emergency

21. Declaration of national food emergency

The President may declare a national food emergency if, in his opinion, there is a major shortfall in the domestic production or availability of a designated commodity.

22. Vesting of Agency functions

(1) Subject to subsection (2), whenever the President declares a national food emergency under section twenty-one, the powers of the Agency under this Act shall vest in the Minister.

(2) The Minister shall exercise the powers of the Agency, during the existence of the national food emergency and for not more than thirty days after the end of the emergency as declared by the President, and shall consult the Agency in the selection of bidders for the supply of a designated commodity purchased for the national food reserve.

(3) Where the Minister exercises the powers referred to in subsection (2), the Agency shall, after the appointed date be an advisory committee to the Minister.
Part VIII – General

23. Transitional period

The Minister may exercise the powers of the Agency under this Act until such time as the members of the Agency are appointed.

24. Vesting of assets and transfer of liabilities

   (1) On the appointed date, there shall be transferred to, and shall vest in and be owned by the Government without further assurance all property, rights, liabilities and obligations, excluding fertilizer, transferred under the repealed Act which, immediately before the appointed date, were the property, rights, liabilities and obligations of the Company or Federation by virtue of the repealed Act.

   (2) The Minister shall by statutory instrument provide for the transfer of any property, right, liability or obligation to the Agency without further assurance on such terms and conditions as may be specified in the statutory instrument.

   (3) The property, rights, liability or obligation specified in the statutory instrument made under subsection (2) shall, on the coming into force of the statutory instrument, vest in or, as the case may be, subsists against the Agency.

   (4) The provisions of section twenty-five shall apply, with the necessary modifications, to the Agency on the coming into force of the statutory instrument.

25. Registration of property to be transferred

   (1) Whenever in pursuance of this Act any property, right, liabilities or obligations, of the Federation or Company are transferred to the Government in respect of which transfer a written law provides for registration, the Government shall make an application in writing to the proper officer or the appropriate registration authority for the registration of the transfer.

   (2) The officer referred to in subsection (1) shall make such entries in the appropriate register as shall give effect to the transfer and, where appropriate, issue the transferee concerned with a certificate of title in respect of the property or make necessary amendments to the register, as the case may be, and shall make endorsement on the deeds relating to the title, right or obligation concerned.

   (3) No registration fees or duty shall be payable in respect of any transfer effected under this Part.

26. Legal proceedings

   (1) Without prejudice to the other provisions of this Act, where any right, liability or obligation vests in the company or Federation by virtue of the repealed Act, the Government or Agency, as the case may be, and all other persons shall, as from the commencement of this Act, have the same rights, powers and remedies (and in particular the same rights as to the instituting or defending of legal proceedings or the making or resisting of applications to any authority) for ascertaining, perfecting or enforcing those rights, liabilities or obligations as they would have had if it had at all times been a right, liability or obligation of the Government or the Agency under the repealed Act.

   (2) Any legal proceedings or application to any authority pending immediately before the commencement of this Act by or against the Federation or Company in relation to the assets transferred to the Government or the Agency, as the case may be, may be continued by or against the Government or Agency.
(3) After the commencement of this Act proceedings in respect of any right or obligation which was vested in, held, enjoyed, incurred or suffered by the Federation or Company may be instituted by, or against the Government or Agency.

27. Regulations

The Minister may, by statutory instrument, and in consultation with the Agency, prescribe—

(a) anything which by this Act is required or permitted to be prescribed;
(b) any forms for the purposes of this Act;
(c) any fees payable in respect of any service provided by the Agency;
(d) any other matters as are necessary or conducive to the better carrying out of the purposes of this Act.
(e) to describe different procedures for different areas.

28. Repeal of Act No. 19 of 1989

The National Agricultural Marketing Act is hereby repealed.
