‘Chairperson’ means the person appointed as Chairperson under section five;

‘Commission’ means the Human Rights Commission established under the Constitution;

‘Commissioner’ means a person appointed Commissioner under section five;

‘Deputy Director’ means a person appointed as Deputy Director under section eighteen;

‘Director’ means the person appointed as Director under section eighteen;

‘Secretary’ means the Secretary to the Commission referred to in section eighteen;

‘Staff’ means the staff of the Commission appointed under section eighteen; and ‘Vice-Chairperson’ means the person appointed as Vice-Chairperson under section five.

Part II – The Human Rights Commission

3. Extent of Commission’s autonomy
The Commission shall not, in the performance of its duties, be subject to the direction or control of any person or authority.

4. Seal of Commission
(1) The seal of the Commission shall be such device as may be determined by the Commission and shall be kept by the Secretary.
(2) The affixing of the seal shall be authenticated by the Chairperson or the Vice-Chairperson and any other person authorised in that behalf by a resolution of the Commission.

(3) Any document purporting to be under the seal of the Commission or issued on behalf of the Commission shall be received in evidence and shall be deemed to be so executed or issued, as the case may be, without further proof, unless the contrary is proved.

5. Composition of Commission

(1) The Commission shall consist of the following Commissioners:

   (a) the Chairperson;

   (b) the Vice-Chairperson; and

   (c) not more than five other Commissioners.

(2) The Commissioners shall be appointed by the President, subject to ratification by the National Assembly.

(3) The Chairperson and Vice-Chairperson shall be persons who have held, or are qualified to hold, high judicial office.

6. Oath on appointment

(1) Every Commissioner shall, on appointment affirm or take an oath in Form I as set out in Part I of the Schedule, and such oath shall be administered by the President.

(2) The Secretary and other members of staff shall on appointment, affirm or take an oath in Form 2 as set out in Part II of the Schedule and such oath shall be administered by a Commissioner for Oaths.

7. Tenure of office and vacancy

(1) A Commissioner referred to in subsection (1) of section five shall be appointed for a term not exceeding three years, subject to renewal:

   Provided that the first Commissioners shall be appointed for periods ranging from one to three years in order to facilitate retirement by rotation.

(2) A Commissioner may be removed from office for inability to perform the functions of the Commissioner’s office, whether arising from infirmity of body or mind, incompetence or for misbehaviour.

(3) A Commissioner may resign upon giving one month’s notice in writing to the President.

(4) The office of a Commissioner shall become vacant—

   (a) if the Commissioner is absent without reasonable excuse from three consecutive meetings of the Commission of which the Commissioner has had notice;

   (b) if the Commissioner is a declared bankrupt; or

   (c) upon the Commissioner’s death.
8. Filling of casual vacancy

If the office of a Commissioner becomes vacant before the expiry of the term of office, the President, may, subject to ratification by the National Assembly, appoint another person to be a Commissioner, for the unexpired term, in place of the Commissioner who vacates the office.

9. Functions of Commission

The functions of the Commission shall be to—

(a) investigate human rights violations;

(b) investigate any maladministration of justice;

(c) propose effective measures to prevent human rights abuse;

(d) visit prisons and places of detention or related facilities with a view to assessing and inspecting conditions of the persons held in such places and make recommendations to redress existing problems;

(e) establish a continuing programme of research, education, information and rehabilitation of victims of human rights abuse to enhance the respect for and protection of human rights;

(f) do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the functions of the Commission.

10. Powers of Commission

(1) The Commission shall have powers to investigate any human rights abuses—

(a) on its own initiative; or

(b) on receipt of a complaint or allegation under this Act by—

(i) an aggrieved person acting in such person’s own interest;

(ii) an association acting in the interest of its members;

(iii) a person acting on behalf of an aggrieved person; or

(iv) a person acting on behalf of and in the interest of a group or class of persons.

(2) The Commission shall have powers to—

(a) issue summons or orders requiring the attendance of any authority before the Commission and the production of any document or record relevant to any investigation by the Commission;

(b) question any person in respect of any subject matter under investigation before the Commission;

(c) require any person to disclose any information within such person’s knowledge relevant to any investigation by the Commission; and

(d) recommend the punishment of any officer found by the Commission to have perpetrated an abuse of human rights.

(3) A witness summoned under subsection (2), shall be examined under oath and such oath shall be administered by the Chairperson.
(4) Subject to subsection 5, the Commission may where it considers it necessary recommend—
   (a) the release of a person from detention;
   (b) the payment of compensation to a victim of human rights abuse, or to such victim’s family;
   (c) that an aggrieved person seek redress in a court of law: or
   (d) such other action as it considers necessary to remedy the infringement of a right.

(5) Notwithstanding subsection 4, the Commission shall not have powers where a matter is pending before a court.

11. Complaints

(1) A complaint or allegation referred to in paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section ten may be made orally or in writing and shall be addressed to the Secretary who shall, in the case of an oral complaint or allegation, reduce the same to writing.

(2) Every complaint or allegation shall—
   (a) be signed or thumb-printed by the person making it; and
   (b) bear the complainant’s name and address.

(3) A complaint or allegation shall not be received by the Commission unless it is made within a period of two years from the date on which the facts giving rise to any such complaint or allegation become known to the person making the complaint or the allegation.

(4) The Commission may refuse to conduct, or may decide to discontinue an investigation where it is satisfied that the complaint or allegation is malicious, frivolous, vexatious or the particulars accompanying it are insufficient to allow a proper investigation to be conducted, and shall indicate accordingly in the report.

(5) The Commission shall, in any case in which it decides not to conduct an investigation, or decides to discontinue an investigation inform the complainant in writing accordingly, and give reasons therefor.

(6) The Commission may in any inquiry make such orders and give such directions as it may consider necessary for the purpose of conducting any investigation.

12. Sittings of the Commission to be public

The Commission shall—
   (a) conduct all its sittings in public:
       Provided that the Commission may hold its sittings in camera when the Commission considers it necessary; and
   (b) make all its reports in respect of such sittings public.

13. Recommendation by Commission

(1) The Commission shall—
   (a) send written reports of its findings to the parties concerned; and
(b) dependant on the findings made, make such recommendation as it considers necessary to the appropriate authority.

(2) The appropriate authority shall, within thirty days from the date of such recommendation make a report to the Commission, on any action taken by such authority to redress any human rights violation.

(3) Any person who contravenes the provisions of subsection (2) shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable, upon conviction, to a fine not exceeding ten thousand penalty units, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years, or to both.

(a) a body corporate, every director or similar officer of the body shall be guilty of the offence;

(b) a partnership, every partner shall be guilty of the offence; and

(c) a public authority, the officer or officers charged with the responsibility of acting on a recommendation and making a report on such recommendation shall be guilty of the offence.

(5) A person shall not be guilty of an offence under subsection (3) if such person proves to the satisfaction of the court that—

(a) the act constituting the offence was done without the knowledge, consent or connivance of such person; or

(b) such person attempted to prevent the commission of the offence having regard to all the circumstances of the case.

14. Proceedings of Commission

(1) Subject to the other provisions of this Act, the Commission may regulate its own procedure.

(2) The Commission shall meet for the transaction of business at least once every three months at such places and times as the Chairperson may determine.

(3) The Chairperson may at any time call a meeting of the Commission and shall call a special meeting to be held within fourteen days of receipt of a written request addressed to the Chairperson by at least four other Commissioners.

(4) If the urgency of any particular matter does not permit the giving of such notice as is required under subsection (3), a special meeting may be called by the Chairperson, upon giving a shorter notice.

(5) The Chairperson or Vice-Chairperson with four other Commissioners shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the Commission.

(6) There shall preside any meeting of the Commission—

(a) the Chairperson;

(b) in the absence of the Chairperson the Vice-Chairperson; or

(c) in the absence of both the Chairperson and the Vice-Chairperson, such other Commissioner as the Commissioners present may elect for the purpose of that meeting.

(7) A decision of the Commission on any question shall be by a majority of the Commissioners present and voting at the meeting and, in the event of an equality of votes, the Chairperson presiding at the meeting shall have a casting vote, in addition to such Chairperson's deliberative vote.
(8) The Commission may invite any person, whose presence is in its opinion desirable, to attend and to participate in the deliberations of the meeting of the Commission, but such person shall have no vote.

(9) The validity of any proceedings, acts or decisions of the Commission shall not be affected by any vacancy in the membership of the Commission or by any defect in the appointment of any Commissioner by reason that any person not entitled to do so, took part in the proceedings.

15. Committees

(1) The Commission may, for the purpose of performing its functions under this Act, establish such committees as it considers necessary, and delegate to any of those committees such of its functions as it considers fit.

(2) Subject to subsection (1), the Commission may appoint as members of a committee, persons who are, or are not, Commissioners except that at least one member of a Committee shall be a Commissioner.

(3) A person serving as a member of a committee shall hold office for such period as the Commission may determine.

(4) Subject to any specific or general direction of the Commission, a committee may regulate its own procedure.

16. Disclosure of interest

(1) If any person is present at a meeting of the Commission or any committee at which any matter is the subject of consideration and which matter that person or that person's spouse is directly or indirectly interested in a private capacity, that person shall as soon as is practicable after the commencement of the meeting, declare such interest and shall not, unless the Commission or the committee otherwise directs, take part in any consideration or discussion of, or vote on, any question touching such matter.

(2) A disclosure of interest made under subsection (1) shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting at which it is made.

(3) Any person who contravenes the provisions of subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable, upon conviction, to a fine not exceeding five thousand penalty units.

17. Prohibition of disclosure of information to unauthorised persons

(1) A person shall not without the consent in writing given by, or on behalf of the Commission, publish or disclose to any person otherwise than in the course of such person's duties, the contents of any documents, communication, or information which relates to, and which has come to such person's knowledge in the course of such person's duties under this Act.

(2) Any person who contravenes the provisions of subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable, upon conviction, to a fine not exceeding ten thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years, or to both.

(3) If any person having information which to such person's knowledge has been published or disclosed in contravention of subsection (1), unlawfully publishes or communicates any such information to any other person, such person shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable, upon conviction, to a fine not exceeding ten thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years, or to both.
Part III – The Directorate of the Commission
