Part II – The Anti-Corruption Commission

4. Continuation of Commission

- (1) The Anti-Corruption Commission continued under the repealed Act shall continue to exist as if established under this Act, and shall be a body corporate with perpetual succession and a common seal, capable of suing and of being sued in its corporate name and with power, subject to this Act, to do all such acts and things as a body corporate may, by law, do or perform.

[Act No. 38 of 2010]

- (2) The provisions of the State Proceedings Act shall apply to civil proceedings by, or against, the Commission as if, for a reference to the State there were substituted a reference to the Commission.

[Cap. 71]

- (3) The provisions of the Schedule apply to the Commission.

5. Autonomy of Commission

Subject to the Constitution, the Commission shall not, in the performance of its functions, be subject to the direction or control of any person or authority.

[Cap. 1]

6. Functions of Commission

- (1) The functions of the Commission are to—
- (a) prevent and take necessary and effective measures for the prevention of corruption in public and private bodies, including, in particular, measures for—
 - (i) examining the practices and procedures of public and private bodies in order to facilitate the discovery of opportunities of corrupt practices and secure the revision of methods of work or procedures which in the opinion of the Commission, may be prone or conducive to corrupt practices;
 - (ii) advising public bodies and private bodies on ways and means of preventing corrupt practices, and on changes in methods of work or procedures of such public bodies and private bodies compatible with the effective performance of their duties, which the Commission considers necessary to reduce the likelihood of the occurrence of corrupt practices;
 - (iii) disseminating information on the evil and dangerous effects of corrupt practices on society;
 - (iv) creation of committees in institutions for monitoring corruption in the institution; and
 - (v) enlisting and fostering public confidence and support against corrupt practices;
 - (b) initiate, receive and investigate complaints of alleged or suspected corrupt practices, and, subject to the directions of the Director of Public Prosecutions, prosecute—
 - (i) offences under this Act; and
 - (ii) such other offence under any other written law as may have come to the notice of the Commission during the investigation of an offence under this Act:
Provided that nothing in this paragraph shall be considered as precluding any public prosecutor from prosecuting, subject to the directions of the Director of Public Prosecutions, any offence under this Act which has come to the notice of the police during investigation of an offence under any written law;
 - (c) investigate any conduct of any public officer which, the Commission has reasonable grounds to believe may be connected with, or conducive to, corrupt practices;

- (d) be the lead agency in matters of corruption;
 - (e) co-ordinate or co-operate, as applicable, with other institutions authorised to investigate, prosecute, prevent and combat corrupt practices so as to implement an integrated approach to the eradication of corruption;
 - (f) consult, co-operate and exchange information with appropriate bodies of other countries that are authorised to conduct inquiries or investigations in relation to corrupt practices;
 - (g) adopt and strengthen mechanisms for educating the public to respect the public good and public interest and, in particular—
 - (i) create awareness in the fight against corruption and related offences;
 - (ii) develop educational and other programmes for the sensitisation of the media;
 - (iii) promote an environment for the respect of ethics; and
 - (iv) disseminate information and sensitise the public on the negative effects of corruption and related offences; and
 - (h) do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of its functions.
- (2) The Commission may establish specialised units to investigate and deal with such matters as the Commission considers appropriate.

7. Instructions by Commission

- (1) The Commission may instruct a public body on practices and procedures that are necessary to prevent, reduce or eliminate the occurrence of corrupt practices.
- (2) A public body shall, not later than ninety days from the receipt of the instructions from the Commission pursuant to subsection (1), effect the necessary changes in its practices and procedures.
- (3) A public body which considers that the changes in practices and procedures contained in the instructions from the Commission shall be impracticable or otherwise disadvantageous to the effective discharge of its functions shall, within thirty days of the receipt of the instructions, make representations to the Director-General in writing.
- (4) The Commission may, after considering the representations of a public body made under subsection (3), confirm, vary or cancel the instruction given to the public body.
- (5) The head of a public body which, without any reasonable explanation, fails to comply with the instructions of the Commission commits an offence and is liable, upon conviction, to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding one year, or to both.
- (6) In addition to the penalty prescribed in subsection (5), the head of the public body which fails to comply with the instructions of the Commission shall be subject to disciplinary action, including dismissal from office by the relevant authority.

8. Reports and recommendation by Commission

- (1) The Commission may, after an investigation into an offence under this Act, depending on the findings made, make such recommendation as it considers necessary to an appropriate authority.

- (2) An appropriate authority shall, within thirty days from the date of receipt of the recommendation of the Commission under subsection (1), make a report to the Commission on the action taken by the appropriate authority.
- (3) The head of a public body which, without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with sub-section (2), commits an offence and is liable, upon conviction, to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding one year, or to both.

9. Director-General

- (1) There shall be a Director-General of the Commission who shall be the chief executive officer of the Commission.
- (2) The Director-General shall be appointed by the President, subject to ratification by the National Assembly, on such terms and conditions as the President may determine.
- (3) A person is not qualified to be appointed as Director-General unless the person is qualified to be appointed judge of the High Court.
- (4) The Director-General shall be responsible for—
 - (a) the control, direction, management and administration of the Commission; and
 - (b) the implementation of any policy matters referred to the Director-General by the Board.
- (5) The Director-General may, subject to any specific or general direction of the Board, make standing orders providing for—
 - (a) the control, direction and administration of the Commission;
 - (b) the discipline, training, classification and promotion of officers of the Commission;
 - (c) the duties of officers of the Commission; and
 - (d) such other matters as the Director-General may consider necessary or expedient for preventing the abuse of power or neglect of duty by officers or other staff.
- (6) The Director-General shall not, while holding the office of Director-General, discharge the duties of any other office of emolument in the Republic.
- (7) The Director-General shall, before taking office, take an oath or affirmation before the President in the prescribed manner and form.

10. Tenure of office of Director-General

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), a person appointed Director-General shall vacate that office on attaining the age of sixty-five years:

Provided that the President may permit a person who has attained that age to continue in office for such period as may be necessary to enable that person to do anything in relation to proceedings that were commenced before the person attained that age.
- (2) A person appointed Director-General may be removed from office for inability to perform the functions of office, whether arising from infirmity of body or mind or from any other cause, or for misconduct, and shall not be removed except by, or in accordance with, a resolution passed by the National Assembly pursuant to subsection (3).
- (3) If the National Assembly, by resolution supported by a simple majority, resolves that the question of removing the Director-General ought to be investigated, the Speaker of the National Assembly shall send a copy of such resolution to the Chief Justice who shall appoint a tribunal consisting of a chairperson and two other persons to inquire into the matter.

- (4) The Chairperson and one other member of the tribunal shall be persons who hold or have held high judicial office.
- (5) The tribunal shall inquire into the matter and send a report on the facts of that matter to the President and a copy to the National Assembly.
- (6) Where a tribunal appointed under subsection (3) advises the President that the Director-General ought to be removed from office for inability as aforesaid or for misconduct, the President shall remove the Director-General from office.
- (7) If the question of removing the Director-General from office has been referred to a tribunal under subsection (2), the President may suspend the Director-General from performing the functions of office, and any such suspension shall cease to have effect if the tribunal advises the President that the Director-General ought to be removed from office.
- (8) The Director-General may resign by giving three months' notice, in writing, to the President, of the Director-General's intention to resign.

11. Powers of Director-General

- (1) The Director-General may, for the performance of the Commission's functions under this Act—
 - (a) authorise, in writing, any officer of the Commission to conduct an inquiry or investigation into alleged or suspected offences under this Act;
 - (b) require the head, of any public body, to produce or furnish within such time as may be specified by the Director-General, any document or a certified true copy of any document which is in that person's possession or under that person's control and which the Director-General considers necessary for the conduct of an investigation into alleged or suspected offences under this Act:

Provided that if the document is classified or falls under the State Security Act, the Commission may apply to a judge in chambers to determine whether the document is likely to—

 - (i) prejudice the security, defence or international relations of the Republic; or
 - (ii) involve the disclosure of any matter or deliberations of a secret or confidential nature of the Government; or

[Cap. 111]
 - (c) require any person to answer, to the best of that person's knowledge and belief, questions with respect to the whereabouts or existence of any documents or records that may be relevant to an investigation.
- (2) In determining an application under paragraph (b) of subsection (1), the court may—
 - (a) order the release of the document; or
 - (b) confirm that the release of the document will prejudice the security, defence or international relations of the Republic or involve the disclosure of a confidential matter of Government.
- (3) Notwithstanding any written law to the contrary, the Director-General may, where the Director-General has reasonable grounds to believe that a person who is the subject of an investigation in respect of an offence under this Act is likely to leave Zambia, require such person to surrender their travel document or any other document in that person's possession.

- (4) The Commission shall, where a person surrenders that person's travel document pursuant to subsection (1), return the document after the investigation of the offence is completed, and if no criminal proceedings are to be instituted.
- (5) A person who is aggrieved with the decision of the Director-General made pursuant to subsection (1) may apply to the High Court.
- (6) The High Court may, upon hearing an application made under subsection (3), reverse, vary or dismiss the application or make such other order as the court considers appropriate,

12. Deputy Director-General

- (1) The Commission shall appoint a Deputy Director-General on such terms and conditions as it may determine.
- (2) The Deputy Director-General shall assist the Director-General in performing the Director-General's duties under this Act.
- (3) A person shall not qualify for appointment as Deputy Director-General unless the person is qualified to be appointed judge of the High Court.
- (4) If the office of the Director-General is vacant or the Director-General is absent from duty or unable for any other reason to perform the functions of that office, the Deputy Director-General shall, save where the Commission otherwise directs, act as Director-General.
- (5) If both the Director-General and the Deputy Director-General are absent from office or unable for any other reason to perform the functions of their offices, the President shall appoint another person to act as Director-General.
- (6) The Deputy Director-General may resign by giving three months' notice, in writing, to the Chairperson, of the Deputy Director-General's intention to resign.
- (7) The Deputy Director-General shall, on appointment, take an oath or affirmation before the President in the prescribed manner and form.

13. Directors, Secretary, investigating officers and other staff of Commission

- (1) The Commission may appoint Directors, the Secretary, investigating officers, and such other staff of the Commission, on such terms and conditions as it may determine, to assist the Director-General in the performance of the Director-General's functions under this Act.
- (2) The Secretary shall be in charge of the general administration and shall keep the records of the Commission.
- (3) An officer shall have such powers, functions and duties as provided for, or as delegated to the officer by the Director-General, under this Act.
- (4) The Director-General may, if satisfied that it is in the best interest of the Commission, terminate the appointment of any officer of the Commission and shall assign the reasons therefor, subject to any directions by the Commission.
- (5) A person aggrieved with the decision of the Director-General to terminate that person's employment pursuant to subsection (3) may appeal against that decision to the Board.
- (6) The Commission may, in the exercise of its functions, engage the services of such advisors and experts as it considers necessary.

- (7) The Directors, Secretary, advisors, experts and other members of staff of the Commission shall, on appointment, take an oath or affirmation before the Director-General in the prescribed manner and form.

14. Declaration of assets

The Director-General, Deputy Director-General, officers and Secretary shall, before taking office under this Act and every five years thereafter—

- (a) in the case of the Director-General, Deputy Director-General and Secretary, submit to the Chief Justice a written declaration, in the prescribed form, of all the assets they own or liabilities owed to them; and
- (b) in the case of the other staff of the Commission, submit to a magistrate a written declaration, in the prescribed form, of all the assets they own or liabilities owed to them.

15. Identity card

- (1) The Director-General shall issue to an officer of the Commission an identity card which shall be prima facie evidence of the officer's appointment as such.
- (2) An officer shall, in performing any function under this Act—
 - (a) be in possession of the identity card referred to in subsection (1); and
 - (b) show the identity card to any person who requests to see it or is subject to an investigation under this Act.

16. Prohibition of disclosure of information to unauthorised persons

- (1) A person shall not, without the consent in writing given by, or on behalf of, the Commission, publish or disclose to any person otherwise than in the course of such person's duties, the contents of any document, communication or information which relates to, or which has come to that person's knowledge in the course of that person's duties under this Act.
- (2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable, upon conviction, to a fine not exceeding two hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years, or to both.
- (3) A person who, having information which to that person's knowledge has been published or disclosed in contravention of subsection (1), unlawfully publishes or communicates such information to any other person, commits an offence and is liable, upon conviction, to a fine not exceeding two hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years, or to both.

17. Immunity of staff

- (1) No proceedings, civil or criminal, shall lie against the Director-General, Deputy Director-General, Directors, Secretary, an officer or member of staff of the Commission for anything done in good faith in the exercise of the officer's or member of staff's functions under this Act.
- (2) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Director-General, Deputy Director-General, an officer or member of staff of the Commission shall not be called to give evidence before any court or tribunal in respect of anything coming to such person's knowledge in the exercise of such person's functions under this Act.

18. Impersonation and procurement of officer

A person who pretends to—

- (a) upon first conviction, to imprisonment for a period not exceeding fourteen years;
- (b) upon a second or subsequent conviction, to imprisonment for a term of not less than five years but not exceeding fourteen year; and
- (c) in addition to any other penalty imposed under this Act, to forfeiture to the State of any pecuniary resource, property, advantage, profit or gratification received in the commission of an offence under this Act.

42. Restitution

Where a person is convicted of an offence under this Part, the court may, in addition to the sentence that it may impose under section forty-one, order the convicted person to pay to the rightful owner the amount or value, as determined by the court, of any gratification actually received by that person, and such order shall be deemed to form part of the sentence:

Provided that where, after reasonable inquiry, the rightful owner cannot be ascertained or traced, or where the rightful owner is implicated in the giving of the gratification, the court shall order that the amount or value thereof be paid into the general revenues of the Republic.

43. Recovery of gratification by distress, etc.

Any fine imposed under the provisions of this Part and the amount or value of any gratification ordered to be paid under section forty-two may be recovered in accordance with the provisions of sections three hundred and eight and three hundred and nine of the Criminal Procedure Code by distress and sale of the movable and immovable property of the person sentenced.

[Cap. 88]

44. Recovery of gratification corruptly received by agent

- (1) Where a person gives gratification to, or for, or on account of, an agent in contravention of any provision of this Act, the principal may recover, as a civil debt, the amount or value of such gratification from the agent, and the acquittal of the agent or such person in respect of an offence under this Part shall not operate as a bar to any proceedings for such recovery.
- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) shall be deemed to prejudice or affect any right which any principal may have under any written law or rule to recover from the agent any money or property.

45. Certificate of Government valuation officer or other specialist valuer

In any proceedings under this Act, a certificate by a Government valuation officer or other specialist valuer with respect to the value of any gratification or of any movable or immovable property shall be sufficient proof of such value, unless the contrary is proved.

46. Certain matters not to constitute defence

- (1) If in any proceedings for an offence under any section of this Part, it is proved that the accused person accepted any gratification believing or suspecting or having reasonable grounds to believe or suspect that the gratification was given as an inducement or reward for, or otherwise on account of, the accused person's doing or forbearing to do, or having done or forborne to do, any act referred to in that section, it shall not be a defence that—

- (a) the accused person did not actually have the power, right or opportunity to do so or forbear;
 - (b) the accused person accepted the gratification without intending to do so or forbear; or
 - (c) the accused person did not in fact do so or forbear.
- (2) If, in any proceedings for an offence under any section of this Part it is proved that the accused person offered any gratification to any other person as an inducement or reward for, or otherwise on account of, that other person's doing or forbearing to do, or having done or forborne to do, any act referred to in that section, believing or suspecting or having reasonable grounds to believe or suspect that such other person had the power, right or opportunity to do so or forbear, it shall not be a defence that such other person did not have such power, right or opportunity.

47. Suspension of public officer charged with corruption

- (1) Subject to the applicable legal and administrative procedures relating to the right to justice and a fair hearing applicable to public officers under their conditions of service, a public officer who is charged with corruption shall be suspended, at half pay, with effect from the date of the charge.
- (2) A public officer ceases to be suspended if the proceedings against the public officer are discontinued or if the public officer is acquitted.
- (3) This section does not derogate from any administrative power, disciplinary code, regulation, law or any other inherent powers of an employer under which the public officer may be suspended without pay or dismissed.
- (4) This section does not apply with respect to an office in respect of which the Constitution limits or provides for the grounds upon which a holder of the office may be removed or the circumstances in which the office shall be vacated.

[Cap. 1]

48. Suspension of public officer convicted of corruption

- (1) A public officer who is convicted of an offence shall be suspended without pay with effect from the date of the conviction pending the outcome of any appeal.
- (2) A public officer ceases to be suspended if a conviction is overturned on appeal.
- (3) A public officer shall be dismissed if—
 - (a) the time period for appealing against the conviction expires without the conviction being appealed; or
 - (b) the conviction is upheld on appeal.

49. Effect of conviction

- (1) A person convicted of an offence under this Part shall, by reason of such conviction, be disqualified for a period of five years from the date of such conviction, from being elected or appointed to, or from holding or continuing to hold, any office or position in any public body.
- (2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the State shall endeavour to ensure the implementation of effective measures for the reintegration into society, of a person convicted of an offence under this Act.

- (3) A court may, where it convicts a person of an offence under this Act, set aside any transaction that occurred in circumstances that gave rise to the conviction, unless the transaction was with a third party acting in good faith and without notice.
- (4) A transaction set aside under subsection (3) shall be void ab initio and shall not give rise to a claim for damages.

50. Offences by body corporate or unincorporate body

Where an offence under this Act is committed by a body corporate or unincorporate body, every director or manager of the body corporate or unincorporate body shall be liable, upon conviction, as if the director or manager had personally committed the offence, unless the director or manager proves to the satisfaction of the court that the act constituting the offence was done without the knowledge, consent or connivance of the director or manager or that the director or manager took reasonable steps to prevent the commission of the offence.

Part IV – Investigation of corrupt practices

51. Lodging of complaint

- (1) A person who alleges that another person has engaged or is about to engage in a corrupt practice may lodge a complaint with the Commission in the prescribed manner and form.
- (2) The Commission may investigate a matter under this Act on receipt of a complaint or on its own initiative.
- (3) The Commission may refer any offence that comes to its notice in the course of an investigation under subsection (2) to any other appropriate investigation authority or agency.

52. Consideration of complaint

- (1) The Director-General shall, upon receipt of a complaint under section fifty-one, examine each alleged corrupt practice and decide whether or not an investigation in relation to the allegation is warranted.
- (2) The Director-General may, in deciding whether to investigate an alleged corrupt practice, consider—
 - (a) the seriousness of the conduct or involvement to which the allegation relates;
 - (b) whether or not the allegation is frivolous or vexatious;
 - (c) whether or not the conduct or involvement to which the allegation relates is or has been the subject of an investigation or other action by any other appropriate authority under any other written law; and
 - (d) whether or not, in all the circumstances, the carrying out of an investigation for the purpose of this Act in relation to the allegation will disclose the commission or likelihood of the commission of an offence under this Act.
- (3) The Director-General shall, where the Director-General determines that an investigation into an allegation is warranted, decide whether the Commission shall carry out the investigation or whether the allegation should be referred to another appropriate authority for investigation or action.
- (4) The Director-General may, for purposes of performing the functions under this section—

- (a) make such preliminary inquiry as the Director-General considers necessary; and
 - (b) consult any other appropriate authority.
- (5) The Director-General shall inform the complainant, in writing, of the decision of the Commission in relation to the allegation.
- (6) A person who, in bad faith, makes a frivolous or vexatious complaint to the Commission commits an offence and is liable, upon conviction, to a fine not exceeding seven hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding seven years, or to both.

53. Power to require attendance before Director-General

- (1) The Director-General may, by notice, in writing, require any person whose affairs are being investigated or any other person who the Director-General has reason to believe may have information or documents relevant to an investigation to—
- (a) attend before the Director-General as may be specified in the notice;
 - (b) answer questions with respect to any matter or supply any information that may be relevant to the investigation; or
 - (c) produce for inspection any documents which are specified in the notice.
- (2) Subsection (1) shall apply without prejudice to a person's rights under any other law relating to privilege.

54. Search without warrant

- (1) An officer may, where the officer reasonably suspects that an offence is being, has been or is about to be committed under this Act, without a warrant, enter and search any premises, other than a private dwelling except if the private dwelling is used for business purposes, for the purpose of attaching and removing, if necessary, any record, return, report, document or article, if the owner, occupier of the premises or other person in control of the premises consents to the entry, search, seizure and removal of the record, return, book, document or article.
- (2) An officer exercising any power under this section shall, before entering and searching any premises, ensure that the owner, occupier or person in control of the premises is present.

55. Search with warrant

- (1) The Director-General, the Deputy Director-General or an officer of the Commission, in the performance of their duties, may apply for a warrant to a judge or a magistrate.
- (2) A judge or magistrate to whom an application for a warrant is made under subsection (1) may issue the warrant where—
- (a) there are reasonable grounds to believe that—
 - (i) a person has failed to produce the documents required for purposes of this Act;
 - (ii) a person has failed to answer any questions asked for purposes of an investigation or that any answer given to any question is false or misleading in a material particular or is incomplete;
 - (iii) it is not practicable to serve a notice on a person by reason of the fact that the person cannot be located or is absent from Zambia, or that the service of a notice might prejudice an investigation; or

- (b) there are reasonable grounds to believe that any document or other thing relevant to an investigation or that may be evidence of an offence under this Act is placed, deposited or concealed in the premises to which the warrant relates.
- (3) A warrant issued under subsection (2) shall confer on the Director-General, the Deputy Director-General or an officer of the Commission power to—
- (a) access all the books, records, returns, reports and other documents relating to the work of any public or private body;
 - (b) enter and search, at any time, the premises of any public or private body or any vessel, boat, aircraft or other conveyance, where the Director-General, Deputy Director-General or officer has reasonable grounds to believe that any property or thing corruptly acquired has been placed, deposited or concealed therein;
 - (c) search for and remove any document or other thing that may be relevant to an investigation or may be evidence of an offence;
 - (d) where necessary, take copies of any document or extracts from documents that the person executing the warrant believes on reasonable grounds may be relevant to an investigation; and
 - (e) where necessary, to require any person to reproduce, or to assist to reproduce, in usable form, any information recorded or stored in any documents.
- (4) In the exercise of powers of entry and search conferred under paragraph (b) of subsection (3), the Director-General, the Deputy Director-General or other officer of the Commission, may use such reasonable force as is necessary and justifiable in the circumstances, and may be accompanied or assisted by such other persons as they consider necessary to assist them to enter into, or upon, any premises, or upon any vessel, boat, aircraft or other conveyance, as the case may be.
- (5) A person who accompanies or assists the Director-General, the Deputy Director-General or other officer of the Commission to enter into or upon any premises or upon any vessel, boat, aircraft or other conveyance, as the case may be, shall, during the period of such accompaniment or assistance, enjoy the same immunity as is conferred under section seventeen upon an officer of the Commission.

56. Inspection of banker's books

- (1) The Director-General, Deputy Director-General or an officer may, with a court order, investigate any bank account, share account, purchase account, expense account or any other account or safe deposit box in any bank.
- (2) An order made under subsection (1) shall be sufficient for the disclosure or production by any person of all or any information, account, document or article that may be required by an officer of the Commission so authorised.

57. Power of arrest

- (1) The Director-General, the Deputy Director-General or an officer of the Commission authorised in that behalf by the Director-General may arrest a person, without warrant, if the officer has reasonable grounds to believe that such person has committed or is about to commit an offence under this Act.
- (2) Where a person is arrested without warrant under subsection (1), such person may, at any time before appearing in court, while the person is in custody, be released on bond upon providing surety or sureties sufficient, in the opinion of the Director-General, Deputy Director-General or an officer authorised in that behalf by the Director-General, to secure that person's appearance before court, or the person may be released upon that person's own recognizance on such conditions as the officer thinks fit.

- (3) A bond issued under this section shall be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of the Criminal Procedure Code.

[Cap. 88]

58. Seizure of property

- (1) Where in the course of an investigation into an offence under this Act, an officer has reasonable grounds to suspect that any movable or immovable property is derived or acquired from corrupt practices, is the subject matter of an offence or is evidence relating to an offence, the officer shall, with a warrant, seize the property.
- (2) An officer who seizes any property pursuant to subsection (1) shall prepare and sign a list of all the movable or immovable property seized under that subsection and of the places in which the property is found.
- (3) An officer shall serve a copy of the list referred to in subsection (2) on the owner of the property or on the person from whom the property was seized, not later than thirty days from the date of seizure.
- (4) For the purpose of this section, "property" means real or personal property of any description, and includes money and any interest in the real or personal property.

59. Custody and release of seized property

- (1) An officer shall effect a seizure by removing the movable property from the custody or control of the person from whom it is seized and placing it under the custody of such other person or authority and at such place as the officer may determine.
- (2) An officer shall, where it is not practicable or otherwise not desirable to effect the removal of any property under subsection (1), leave it at the premises in which it is seized under the custody of such person as the officer may determine.
- (3) An officer shall, where property is seized under subsection (2), make a record in writing specifying in detail the circumstances of, and the reason for, the seizure of the property and subsequent leaving of the property at the premises.

60. Restriction on disposal of property

- (1) The Director-General may, by written notice to a person who is the subject of an investigation in respect of an offence alleged or suspected to have been committed under this Act, or against whom a prosecution for an offence has been instituted, direct that such person shall not dispose of, or otherwise deal with, any property specified in such notice without the consent of the Director-General.
- (2) A notice issued under subsection (1) may be served by delivering it personally to the person to whom it is addressed or may, where the Director-General is satisfied that that person cannot be found, or is not in the Republic, be served on or brought to the knowledge of that person in such other manner as the Director-General may direct.
- (3) A notice issued under subsection (1) shall—
 - (a) in respect of an investigation within the jurisdiction, have effect from the time of service and shall continue in force for a period of nine months or until cancelled by the Director-General, whichever is earlier; and

- (b) in respect of an investigation outside the jurisdiction, have effect from the time of service and shall continue in force for a period of twelve months or until cancelled by the Director-General, whichever is earlier:

Provided that the Director-General may issue a fresh notice upon the expiry of the previous one for a further final term of six months to facilitate the conclusion of an investigation.

- (4) A person who, having been served with, or having knowledge of a notice issued under subsection (1), disposes of or otherwise deals with, any property specified in the notice other than in accordance with the consent of the Director-General, commits an offence, and is liable, upon conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years.
- (5) A person aggrieved with the directive of the Director-General issued under subsection (1) may apply to the High Court for an order to reverse or vary the directive.
- (6) An application made under subsection (5) shall give notice to the Director-General of the day appointed for the hearing of the application as a judge of the High Court may order.
- (7) The High Court may, on the hearing of an application under subsection (5)
 - (a) confirm the directive;
 - (b) reverse the directive and consent to the disposal of, or other dealing with, any property specified in the notice, subject to such terms and conditions as it thinks fit; or
 - (c) vary the directive as it thinks fit.

61. Restriction on disposal of property by third party

- (1) The Commission may, where it has reasonable grounds to believe that a third party is holding any property, including money in a bank account for, or on behalf of, or to the order of a person who is under investigation, by notice, in writing, under the hand of the Director-General, serve a notice on the third party directing that the third party shall not dispose of, or otherwise deal with, any property specified in the notice.
- (2) A notice issued under subsection (1) shall be served on the third party to whom it is directed and on the person being investigated.
- (3) The Commission may, in issuing a notice under this section impose such conditions as it may determine.
- (4) A notice issued under subsection (1) shall—
 - (a) in respect of an investigation within the jurisdiction, have effect from the time of service upon the person and shall continue in force for a period of nine months or until cancelled by the Director-General, whichever is earlier; and
 - (b) in respect of an investigation outside the jurisdiction, have effect from the time of-service upon the person and shall continue in force for a period of twelve months or until cancelled by the Director-General, whichever is earlier:

Provided that the Director-General may issue a fresh notice upon the expiry of the previous one for a further final term of six months to facilitate the conclusion of an investigation.
- (5) A third party on whom a notice is served under subsection (1) who disposes of, or deals with, the property specified in the notice without the consent of the Director-General commits an offence and is liable, upon conviction, to imprisonment for a period not exceeding five years.
- (6) A third party on whom a notice is served under this section shall not dispose of, or otherwise deal with, the property specified in the notice except in accordance with the terms of the notice.

- (7) Subsections (5), (6) and (7) of section sixty apply to this section.

62. Forfeiture of unexplained property

The Commission may commence proceedings for forfeiture of unexplained property under this section against a person where—

- (a) after due investigation, the Commission is satisfied that the person has unexplained assets; and
- (b) the person has, in the course of the exercise by the Commission of its powers of investigation or otherwise, been afforded a reasonable opportunity to explain the disproportion between the assets concerned and the person's known legitimate sources of income and the Commission is not satisfied that an adequate explanation of that disproportion has been given.

63. General offences

A person who—

- (a) knowingly makes, or causes to be made, to the Commission, false testimony or a false report in any material particular on any offence or matter under investigation;
- (b) knowingly misleads the Director-General, the Deputy Director-General or any other officer of the Commission by giving any false information or statement or making a false allegation;
- (c) obstructs, assaults, hinders or delays an officer of the Commission in the lawful exercise of the powers conferred on the officer under this Act;
- (d) refuses or fails, without reasonable cause, to give to the Director-General or an officer of the Commission on request, any document or information required for purposes of this Act;
- (e) fails to comply with any lawful demand of the Director-General, Deputy Director-General or an officer of the Commission under this Act; or
- (f) destroys anything to prevent the seizure of any property or document or securing of the property or documents;

commits an offence and is liable, upon conviction, to imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years.

Part V – Powers of the Director of Public Prosecutions

64. Consent of Director of Public Prosecutions

- (1) A prosecution for an offence under Part III shall not be instituted except by, or with, the consent of the Director of Public Prosecutions.
- (2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), a person may be charged with an offence under Part III and may be arrested, or a warrant for that person's arrest may be issued and executed, and the person may be remanded by the court in custody or on bail notwithstanding that the written consent of the Director of Public Prosecutions to the institution of a prosecution for the offence with which that person is charged has not been obtained.
- (3) Where a person is brought before a court before the written consent of the Director of Public Prosecutions to the institution of a prosecution against that person is obtained, the charge shall be explained to the accused person but the accused person shall not be called upon to plead.

65. Bail where suspect or accused person about to leave Zambia

If any person, against whom investigations or proceedings for an offence under Part III are pending, is preparing or about to leave Zambia, whether temporarily or permanently, the Director of Public Prosecutions or any officer authorised in that behalf, may apply to any court for an order requiring such person to furnish bail in any sum, or, if already admitted to bail, in such greater sum and on such additional conditions, as the case may be, with or without sureties, and in any such application the court may make such order as it considers appropriate.

Part VI – Evidence, presumptions and other matters66. Presumption of corrupt intent

- (1) Where, in any proceedings for an offence under this Act, it is proved that the accused person offered or accepted gratification, the gratification shall, unless the contrary is proved, be presumed to have been offered or accepted as an inducement or reward, as is alleged in the particulars of the offence.
- (2) The presumption of corrupt intent shall, in relation to an offence under this Act, include—
 - (a) misuse of position, office or authority; and
 - (b) breach of procurement procedure or wilful failure to comply with applicable procedures or guidelines relating to the management of funds or incurring of public expenditure.
- (3) Where, in any proceedings for an offence under this Act, it is proved that a person offered, gave, solicited, accepted or obtained or agreed to accept or attempted to receive or obtain, a payment in any of the circumstances set out in the relevant section under which the person is charged, such payment shall, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, be presumed to have been offered, given, solicited, accepted, obtained or agreed to be accepted, received or obtained corruptly.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3), "payment" means any corrupt payment, whether cash or in kind, in respect of an offence under this Act.
- (5) Where, in any proceeding under this Act, it is proved that any gratification has been offered, given, accepted or received by any person with the knowledge and acquiescence or consent of the accused person, and the court is satisfied, having regard to that person's relationship to the accused person or to any other circumstances that such person has offered, given, accepted or received the gratification for, or on behalf of, the accused person, or otherwise on account of, or in connection with, the office or duties of the accused person, or otherwise on account of, or in connection with, the office or duties of the accused person, the gratification, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, shall be presumed to have been offered, given, accepted or received by the accused person.

67. Corroborative evidence of pecuniary resources or property

- (1) The fact that an accused person cannot reasonably account for any pecuniary resources or property of which the accused person is in possession disproportionate to the accused person's official emoluments or other income may be taken by the court—
 - (a) as corroborating the testimony of any witness giving evidence in such proceedings that the accused person accepted or solicited any pecuniary resources or property; and
 - (b) as showing that such possession of pecuniary resources or property was accepted or solicited as an inducement or reward.

- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), an accused person shall be deemed to be in possession of pecuniary resources or property if—
 - (a) held by the accused person's relative or associate and the accused person, relative or associate is unable to reasonably account as to how such ownership, possession, custody or control came about; or
 - (b) the accused person entered into any dealing for the acquisition of any property and the accused person is unable to reasonably account for the consideration used to acquire such property.

68. Grant of indemnity by Director of Public Prosecutions

- (1) Subject to the Plea Negotiations and Agreements Act, 2010, the Director of Public Prosecutions may, at any time, with a view to obtaining at a trial the evidence of any person directly or indirectly concerned with or privy to an offence under Part III, tender indemnity to such person on condition that the person makes a full and true disclosure of all facts or circumstances within that person's knowledge relating to the offence and to every other person involved in the commission thereof, whether as principal or in any other capacity, together with the delivery up of any document or thing constituting evidence or corroboration of the commission of the offence by the person to be charged or the accused person, as the case may be.

[Act No. 20 of 2010]

- (2) The court shall record in the manner prescribed by the Criminal Procedure Code the evidence on oath of every person accepting indemnity under subsection (1) and shall transmit the record of such evidence to the Director of Public Prosecutions.

[Cap. 88]

- (3) A person accepting indemnity under this section shall be examined as a witness at the trial.
- (4) Where a person who has accepted indemnity under this section has, either by wilfully concealing anything material to the case, or by giving false evidence, not complied with the condition on which the indemnity was made, that person may be prosecuted for the offence in respect of which the indemnity was tendered or for any other offence which the person appears to have committed in connection with the same matter.
- (5) A person to whom indemnity has been made under subsection (1), who in the opinion of the court, has made a true and full disclosure of all things as to which that person is lawfully examined, shall be entitled to receive a certificate of indemnity under the hand of the Director of Public Prosecutions stating that the person has made a true and full disclosure of all things as to which the person was examined, and such certificate shall be a bar to all legal proceedings against that person in respect of all such things as aforesaid.

69. Protection of whistleblowers, victims, experts, etc.

- (1) The provisions of the Public Interest Disclosure (Protection of Whistleblowers) Act, 2010, shall apply in relation to the protection of whistleblowers and other related matters.

[Act No. 4 of 2010]

- (2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), where it appears to the Director-General that as a result of assisting the Commission or the court, the safety of a witness, expert, victim or other person may be prejudiced or the witness, expert, victim or other person may be subject to threats, intimidation or harassment, the Director-General shall make such arrangements as are necessary to protect—
 - (a) the safety of such witness, expert or victim; or

- (b) any other person from threats, intimidation or harassment.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), "assisting the Commission or court" includes—
 - (a) appearance or impending appearance before the Commission or the court to give evidence or produce a document or other thing;
 - (b) production or proposed production of a document or other thing to the Commission or the court under this Act; or
 - (c) assisting or having assisted the Commission or the court in some other manner in accordance with the provisions of this Act.
- (4) The Director-General may, in providing the arrangements referred to in subsection (2), collaborate with other law enforcement agencies and authorities.
- (5) The law enforcement agencies and authorities shall, as far as reasonably possible, assist the Director-General in the provision of arrangements for the protection of the persons referred to in subsection (2).
- (6) Subject to subsection (1), in any trial for an offence under this Act, a witness shall not be obliged to—
 - (a) disclose the identity or address of an informer or person assisting or who assisted the Commission in an investigation into an alleged or suspected offence under this Act; or
 - (b) state any matter which may disclose the identity or address of an informer or person referred to in paragraph (a).
- (7) Where any document which is in evidence or liable to inspection in any civil or criminal proceeding under this Act contains any entry or passage in which an informer is named or described or which might lead to the person's discovery, the court before which the proceedings is held shall cause such entry or passage to be concealed from view or to be obliterated in such a manner as, in the opinion of the court, shall not disclose the identity of the informer.
- (8) An action or proceeding, including disciplinary action, shall not be instituted or maintained against a witness, expert, victim or other person in respect of—
 - (a) assistance given by the witness, expert, victim or other person to the Commission or the court; or
 - (b) a disclosure of information made by the witness, expert, victim or other person to the Commission or the court.
- (9) A person who contravenes this section commits an offence and is liable, upon conviction, to a fine not exceeding two hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years, or to both.

70. Evidence of custom inadmissible

- (1) In any proceeding for an offence under Part III, it shall not be a defence that any gratification solicited, accepted or obtained or agreed to be accepted, given, offered or promised, is customary in any profession, business, trade, vocation or calling.
- (2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), no entertainment or casual gift offered or accepted under such conditions as may be prescribed shall constitute an offence under Part III.

71. Absence of power, authority or opportunity, no defence

Where a public officer has corruptly solicited, accepted, obtained or agreed to accept or attempted to receive or obtain any gratification, it shall not be a defence in any trial in respect of an offence under Part III that—

- (a) the appointment, nomination or election of such person or any other person as a public officer was invalid or void;
- (b) the public officer or any other public officer did not have the power, authority or opportunity of doing, or of forbearing from doing, the act, favour or disfavour to which the gratification related; or
- (c) the public officer did not actually do any act, favour or disfavour to induce the gratification, or never had the intention of doing so.

72. Corrupt practices coming to notice of commission, body or tribunal

Where any commission, body or tribunal established by or under the Constitution, or appointed under the Inquiries Act, in the course, or upon conclusion, of any proceedings before it, is of the opinion that the conduct of any person appears to constitute an offence under this Act and ought to be inquired into for the purposes of this Act, the commission, body or tribunal concerned shall, subject to any prohibition, restriction or restraint imposed upon it by, or under, the Constitution or any other written law, communicate its opinion to the Director-General, together with the particulars of the person concerned and such other facts of the case as the commission, body or tribunal may consider necessary.

[Cap. 1], [Cap. 41]

73. Affidavit evidence

For the purposes of any proceedings in respect of an offence under this Act, the court may, at any stage of the proceedings, direct that any specified fact may be proved at the trial:

Provided that the deponent may be summoned for cross examination.

74. False, frivolous or groundless complaints or allegations

- (1) Where, at the conclusion of the trial of a person charged with an offence under Part III, the court is of the opinion that any person has wilfully, and with intent to harm or injure the accused person in any manner made a false, frivolous or groundless complaint or allegation against the accused person, the court shall find the person liable for an offence under section thirty-one and shall convict the person accordingly.
- (2) Any person who, in the opinion of the court certified under subsection (1), has made a false, frivolous or groundless complaint or allegation to the effect that any person has committed or attempted to commit, or aided, abetted or counselled the commission of, or conspired with any other person to commit, any offence under Part III, commits an offence and is liable, upon conviction, to a fine not exceeding three hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding seven years or to both.

75. Forfeiture of proceeds or property corruptly acquired

The provisions of the Forfeiture of Proceeds of Crime Act, 2010, shall apply in relation to the seizure and forfeiture of any proceeds or property corruptly acquired by any person and any other related matters.

[Act No. 19 of 2010]

76. Tampering with seized and forfeited property

A person who tampers with any property that is seized or forfeited under this Act commits an offence and is liable, upon conviction, to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three years.

77. Alternative conviction of accused person

- (1) If, on the trial of a person who has committed an offence under Part III, it is not proved that the accused person committed the offence charged but it is proved that the accused person committed some other offence under this Act, the accused person may, notwithstanding the absence of the written consent of the Director of Public Prosecutions in respect of such other offence, be convicted of such other offence, and be liable to be dealt with accordingly.
- (2) If, on the trial of any person for any offence under Part III, there is any material variance between the particulars of the offence charged and the evidence adduced in support thereof, such variance shall not, of itself, entitle the accused person to an acquittal of the offence charged if, in the opinion of the court, there is prima facie evidence of the commission of that offence.
- (3) Subject to subsection (2), notwithstanding the absence of the written consent of the Director of Public Prosecutions in respect of the particulars supported by the evidence adduced, the court may make the necessary amendment to the particulars and shall thereupon read and explain the same to the accused person and the accused person shall be called to plead to the amended particulars and the parties shall be allowed to recall and examine, on matters relevant to such amendment, any witness who may have been examined and to call any further witness.
- (4) If an amendment is made under subsection (3) after the prosecution's case is closed, no further witness shall be called by the prosecution other than a witness on such matters only as it would, apart from the provisions of this subsection, be permissible to call and put in evidence in rebuttal.

78. Disapplication of secrecy obligations

The provisions of this Act shall have effect notwithstanding any obligation as to secrecy or other restriction on the disclosure of information imposed under any written law or otherwise.

79. Compensation for damage

- (1) A person who does anything that constitutes corruption is liable to any person or victim who suffers loss or damage as a result, for the amount that constitutes full compensation for the loss or damage suffered by the person or victim.
- (2) The compensation payable under subsection (1) shall be recoverable as a civil debt.
- (3) The court may, on its own motion or upon an application by a person who suffers damage, in addition to any punishment which it may impose in respect of any offence under this Act, order the person convicted of such offence to pay appropriate compensation to any person for damage suffered as a result of an act of corruption.
- (4) The Commission shall, where it has reasonable grounds to believe that a person has been a party to any corruption and has benefitted from it, institute civil proceedings for damages in respect of the corruption.
- (5) Where a court determines that compensation payable under this section is payable to the State, the amount of compensation shall be paid into the Forfeited Assets Fund established under section seventy-three of the Forfeiture of Proceeds of Crime Act, 2010, and shall be expended in accordance with section seventy-seven of that Act.

[Act No. 19 of 2010]

80. Out of court settlement

- (1) In any matter where the Commission is mandated by this Act or any other law to institute civil proceeding or applications, it shall be lawful for the Commission to issue a notice or letter of demand to the person intended to be sued, and may, in such notice or letter, inform the person about the claim against that person and further inform the person that that person could settle the claim within a specified time before the filing of court proceedings.
- (2) The Commission may negotiate and enter a settlement with any person against whom the Commission intends to bring, or has actually brought, a civil claim or application in court.
- (3) The Commission may tender an undertaking, in writing, not to institute criminal proceedings against a person who—
 - (a) has given a full and true disclosure of all material facts relating to past corrupt conduct and an illegal activity by that person or others; and
 - (b) has voluntarily paid, deposited or refunded all property the person acquired through corruption or illegal activity.
- (4) A settlement or undertaking under this section shall be registered in court.

Part VII – Public participation and access to information

81. Public participation

- (1) The Commission shall ensure that public participation in the prevention and eradication of corruption is undertaken on the principle that public participation—
 - (a) is based on the belief that those who are affected by a problem have a right to be involved in finding a solution;
 - (b) includes the promise that the people's contribution will effect change;
 - (c) promotes sustainable decision by recognising and communicating the needs and interests of all participants, including decision makers;
 - (d) seeks input from participants in designing how they participate;
 - (e) provides participants with information they need to participate in a meaningful way; and
 - (f) communicates to participants how their input affects decisions,
- (2) The Commission shall put in place measures to facilitate the participation of individuals and groups—
 - (a) in the prevention of, and the fight against corruption and the raising of public awareness regarding the existence, causes and gravity of and threat caused by corruption;
 - (b) in as far as is reasonably practicable, in the decision making process;
 - (c) in free exchange of opinions and ideas and respecting, promoting and protecting the freedom to seek, receive, publish and disseminate information concerning corruption; and
 - (d) self mobilisation awareness raising initiatives and programmes.
- (3) The Commission shall inform the public of the various authorities involved in combating corruption and the services available to the public and how the public may assist and otherwise participate in ensuring the effective functioning of the authorities.

- (4) The Commission and the appropriate authorities shall establish mechanisms to collect and respond to public comments, concerns and questions relating to the fight against corruption including public debates and hearings.

82. Analysis and dissemination of information

- (1) The Commission shall—
 - (a) maintain information on the harmful effects of corruption on society for dissemination to the general public;
 - (b) subject to any other written law, provide access to any data collected on corruption for use by members of the public;
 - (c) analyse information relating to corruption and disseminate information on patterns and trends of corruption;
 - (d) subject to any other written law, disseminate information on practices and procedures of public and private bodies on prevention and eradication of corruption;
 - (e) commission studies on corruption and trends impacting on corruption prevention, eradication and general ethical issues;
 - (f) carry out public information and education campaigns;
 - (g) advise the President on existing information gaps and needs in the fight against corruption; and
 - (h) establish, in consultation with public and private bodies, guidelines and principles for the gathering, processing and dissemination of anti-corruption information.
- (2) The Commission shall publish information on the prevention, eradication and effects of corruption as it considers necessary for public education and awareness on the existence, causes and gravity of corruption.
- (3) The Commission shall annually cause the names of all persons convicted of offences or who have admitted guilt under this Act in a particular year to be published in the Gazette.

83. Anti-corruption education and awareness

The Commission shall, in consultation with the relevant authorities and civil society organisations—

- (a) take measures for the integration of anti-corruption practices and strategies in schools, colleges and institutions of higher learning; and
- (b) undertake public information activities that contribute to non-tolerance of corruption and transparency and accountability in the mobilisation and utilisation of public resources and management of public affairs.

84. Maintenance of information

The Commission shall maintain information for the use of the general public on the laws, international anti-corruption agreements to which Zambia is a party, and any policies, plans, guidelines, studies, reports, decisions, recommendations and other publications relating to corruption published by the Commission.

85. Guidelines on public participation

The Commission may make guidelines relating to public participation and information for purposes of this Act.

Part VIII – General provisions86. Procedure for commencement of application

Except where otherwise specifically provided for, all applications under this Act shall be commenced by way of originating summons.

87. Register of gifts

- (1) A public body shall keep a register of gifts which shall be administered by the controlling officer or chief executive officer of the public body, as the case may be.
- (2) The Commission may, by statutory instrument, make rules relating to the management of the register of gifts.

88. Mutual legal assistance

The Mutual Legal Assistance in Criminal Matters Act applies to offences under this Act, except where the provisions of that Act are inconsistent with this Act.

[Cap. 98]

89. Supremacy of Act

Subject to the Constitution, where there is any inconsistency between the provisions of this Act and those of any other written law relating to corrupt practices, the provisions of this Act shall prevail to the extent of the inconsistency.

[Cap. 1]

90. Defence

In any proceedings for an offence under this Act it shall be a valid defence that the gratification offered or accepted is an entertainment or a casual gift.

91. Offences committed outside Zambia

- (1) This Act shall have effect within as well as outside Zambia and notwithstanding where any offence is committed by any person, that person may be dealt with in respect of such offence as if it has been committed within Zambia.
- (2) Any proceedings against any person under this section which would be a bar to subsequent proceedings against such person for the same offence, if such offence had been committed in Zambia, shall be a bar to further proceedings against that person under any written law for the time being in force relating to the extradition of persons, in respect of the same offence outside Zambia.

- (3) Subject to subsection (2), the court may, in relation to an offence committed outside Zambia take into account the previous conviction or criminal record of a person as may be necessary in the application of this Act.

92. Extraditable offences

An offence under this Act shall be deemed to be an extraditable offence under the provisions of the Extradition Act.

[Cap. 94]

93. Rules

The Commission may, by statutory instrument, make rules for the—

- (a) appointment, including the power to confirm appointments of persons, to any office in respect of which the Commission is charged with the responsibility under this Act;
- (b) disciplinary control of persons holding or acting in any office;
- (c) termination of appointments and the removal of persons from office; and
- (d) practice and procedure of the Commission in the exercise of its functions under this Act.

94. Regulations

- (1) The Commission may make regulations for the better carrying out of the provisions of this Act.
- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), the regulations made under that subsection may provide for—
 - (a) the prevention of corruption generally;
 - (b) the disclosure by public officers of interest in contracts or proposed contracts;
 - (c) the control and maintenance of the register of gifts;
 - (d) protection of informers, witnesses, whistleblowers, complainants and other persons for purposes of this Act;

Schedule (Section 4 (3))

Administration of Commission

Part I – The Board of the Commission

1. Seal of Commission
 - (1) The seal of the Commission shall be such device as may be determined by the Board and shall be kept by the Secretary.
 - (2) The affixing of the seal shall be authenticated by the Chairperson or any other person authorised in that behalf by a resolution of the Board.
 - (3) Any document purporting to be under the seal of the Commission or issued on behalf of the Commission shall be received in evidence and shall be deemed to be so executed or issued, as the case may be, without further proof, unless the contrary is proved.
2. Board of Commission
 - (1) There is hereby constituted a Board of Commissioners which shall be the governing body of the Commission.
 - (2) The Board shall consist of the following Commissioners:
 - (a) the Chairperson, who shall be a person who has held, or is qualified to hold, high judicial office;
 - (b) the Vice-Chairperson; and
 - (c) three other persons.
 - (3) The Commissioners shall be appointed by the President, subject to ratification by the National Assembly.
 - (4) A person is eligible to be appointed as a Commissioner if that person—
 - (a) is a citizen of Zambia;
 - (b) is permanently resident in Zambia;
 - (c) is of high integrity; and

- (d) has served with distinction at a senior level in a Government office or a registered profession or vocation.
- (5) A person shall not be appointed as a Commissioner if that person—
- (a) holds office in, or is an employee of, any political party; or
 - (b) has been convicted of an offence involving fraud or dishonesty, or any other offence under this Act or any other written law and sentenced therefor to a term of imprisonment of six months or more without the option of a fine.
3. Tenure of office of Commissioner
- (1) A Commissioner shall, subject to the other provisions of this Schedule, hold office for a period of three years and may be appointed for a further period of three years:
- Provided that a Commissioner shall only hold office for two terms.
- (2) A Commissioner may resign upon giving one month's notice, in writing, to the President.
- (3) The office of a Commissioner shall become vacant—
- (a) if the Commissioner is absent, without reasonable excuse, from three consecutive meetings of the Commission of which the Commissioner has had notice;
 - (b) if the Commissioner is adjudged bankrupt;
 - (c) if the Commissioner is convicted of an offence under this Act or any other written law and sentenced therefor to imprisonment for a term of six months or more, without the option of a fine;
 - (d) if the Commissioner is declared to be of unsound mind; or
 - (e) upon the Commissioner's death.
4. Declaration of assets
- A Commissioner shall not take up office unless the Commissioner furnishes a declaration of assets and liabilities to the Chief Justice in the prescribed form.
5. Proceedings of Board
- (1) Subject to the other provisions of this Act, the Board may regulate its own procedures.
- (2) The Board shall meet for the transaction of business at least once in every three months at such places and times as the Board may determine.
- (3) A meeting of the Board may be called by the Chairperson upon giving notice of not less than fourteen days, and shall be called by the Chairperson if not less than one third of the members so request in writing:
- Provided that if the urgency of any particular matter does not permit the giving of such notice, a special meeting may be called upon a shorter notice given by three members of the Board.
- (4) The Chairperson with two other Commissioners shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the Board.
- (5) There shall preside at any meeting of the Board—
- (a) the Chairperson;
 - (b) in the absence of the Chairperson, the Vice-Chairperson; or
 - (c) in the absence of both the Chairperson and the Vice-Chairperson, such other Commissioner as the Commissioners present may elect for the purpose of that meeting.

- (6) A decision of the Board on any question shall be by a majority of the Commissioners present and voting at the meeting and in the event of an equality of votes, the person presiding at the meeting shall have a casting vote, in addition to that person's deliberative vote.
- (7) The Board may invite any person, whose presence is in its opinion desirable, to attend and to participate in the deliberations of a meeting of the Board, but such person shall have no vote.
- (8) The validity of any proceedings, acts or decisions of the Board shall not be affected by any vacancy in the membership of the Board or by any defect in the appointment of any Commissioner or by reason that any person not entitled to do so, took part in the proceedings.

6. Committees of Board

- (1) The Board may, for the purpose of performing its functions under this Act, establish such committees as it considers necessary and delegate to any of those committees such of its functions as it considers fit.
- (2) Subject to sub-paragraph (1), the Board may appoint as members of a committee persons who are, or are not, Commissioners, except that at least one member of a committee shall be a Commissioner.
- (3) A person serving as a member of a committee shall hold office for such period as the Board may determine.
- (4) Subject to any specific or general direction of the Board, a committee may regulate its own procedure.

7. Remuneration and allowances of Commissioners

There shall be paid to a Commissioner or a member of a committee such remuneration and allowances or honorarium as the Board may determine with the approval of the President.

8. Disclosure of interest

- (1) If any person is present at a meeting of the Board or any committee at which any matter is the subject of consideration, and in which matter that person or that person's spouse, relative, friend or associate is directly or indirectly interested in a private capacity, that person shall, as soon as is practicable after the commencement of the meeting, declare such interest and shall not, unless the Board or the committee otherwise directs, take part in any consideration or discussion of, or vote on, any question relating to that matter.
- (2) A disclosure of interest made under sub-paragraph (1) shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting at which it is made.

9. Prohibition of publication of, or disclosure of, information to unauthorised persons

- (1) A person shall not, without the consent in writing given by, or on behalf of, the Commission, publish or disclose to any unauthorised person, otherwise than in the course of duties of that person, the contents of any document, communication or information whatsoever, which relates to or which has come to the knowledge of that person in the course of that person's duties under this Act.
- (2) A person who contravenes sub-paragraph (1) commits an offence and is liable, upon conviction, to a fine not exceeding two hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years, or to both.
- (3) A person who, having any information which to the knowledge of that person has been published or disclosed in contravention of sub-paragraph (1), unlawfully publishes or communicates the information to any other person, commits an offence and is liable, upon conviction, to a fine not exceeding two hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years, or to both.

10. Immunity

An action or other proceeding shall not lie or be instituted against a Commissioner or a member of a committee of the Commission for, or in respect of, any act or thing done or omitted to be done in good faith in the exercise of or performance, or purported exercise or performance of any of the powers, functions or duties conferred under this Act.

Part II – Financial Provisions

11. Funds of Commission

- (1) The funds of the Commission shall consist of such monies as may—
 - (a) be appropriated to the Commission by Parliament for the purposes of the Commission;
 - (b) be paid to the Commission by way of grants or donations; and
 - (c) otherwise vest in or accrue to the Commission.
- (2) The Commission may, subject to the approval of the President—
 - (a) accept monies by way of grants or donations from any source within or outside Zambia; and
 - (b) raise by way of loans or otherwise, such monies as it may require for the discharge of its functions.
- (3) There shall be paid from the funds of the Commission—
 - (a) the salaries, allowances, pensions and loans of the members of staff of the Commission;
 - (b) such reasonable travelling and other allowances for the Commissioners and the members of any committee when engaged on the business of the Commission, at such rates as the Board may determine; and
 - (c) any other expenses incurred by the Commission in the performance of its functions under this Act.

12. Financial year

The financial year of the Commission shall be a period of twelve months ending on 31st December in each year.

13. Accounts

- (1) The Commission shall cause to be kept proper books of account and other records relating to its accounts.
- (2) The accounts of the Commission shall be audited annually by the Auditor-General or an auditor appointed by the Auditor-General.

14. Annual report

- (1) As soon as practicable, but not later than ninety days after the end of the financial year, the Commission shall submit to the President a report concerning its activities during the financial year.
- (2) The report referred to in sub-paragraph (1) shall include information on the financial affairs of the Commission and there shall be appended to the report—
 - (a) an audited balance sheet;
 - (b) an audited statement of income and expenditure; and
 - (c) such other information as the President may require.
- (3) The President shall, not later than seven days after the first sitting of the National Assembly next after receipt of the report referred to in subparagraph (1), lay the report before the National Assembly.
