A registered architect shall be guilty of professional misconduct if, in the course of his practice, he—

- (a) allows any person, other than a registered architect or trainee architect in his employment to practise in the name of a registered architect;
- (b) unlawfully discloses or uses to his own advantage, any information which was acquired in the course of his professional work on behalf of his client;
- (c) certifies or submits in his name or in the names of his firm a report, document, drawing, statement and related records which have not been made by him, his partner or an architect employed by his firm;
- (d) permits his name or the name of his firm to be used in connection with technical specifications, designs or financial calculations which are not accurate;
- (e) charges for professional work and fees other than the scales approved by the Council
- (f) fails to disclose or knowingly conceals from his client information or facts, which may mislead his client; or
- (g) gives incorrect or insufficient professional advice.

26. Penalties to be imposed by Disciplinary Committee

- (1) Where the Disciplinary Committee, after due inquiry finds an architect guilty of professional misconduct, it may impose one or more of the following penalties:
 - (a) order the cancellation of his practising certificate;

- (b) recommend to the Council, the—
 - (i) suspension of any member and impose any reasonable conditions for the postponement or suspension for a period not exceeding two years;
 - (ii) expulsion; or
 - (c) censure him.
- (2) The Disciplinary Committee shall as soon as practicable after the completion of each hearing, submit a report of the proceedings, together with a copy of the record kept to the Council.

27. Appeals from Disciplinary Committee

- (1) An architect who is aggrieved by any decision of the Council may within thirty days of the notification to him of the decision, appeal to the Minister.
- (2) The cancellation of any membership or registration ordered by the Council shall take effect after the period specified in subsection (1) expires.
- (3) The Minister may, on appeal against the findings or orders of the Council—
 - (a) confirm, vary or set aside any findings made, penalty imposed or direction given by the Council; or
 - (b) refer the matter back to the Council for further consideration.

Part IV – Registration of architects

28. Registration of architects

- (1) A person shall apply to the Honorary-Secretary for registration.
- (2) A foreign firm may operate in Zambia if it is registered by the Council, in joint venture with a Zambian architectural firm.
- (3) The Honorary-Secretary shall keep a register of persons registered by the Council.
- (4) The register referred to in subsection (3) shall show such particulars as the Honorary-Secretary may consider necessary and the Honorary-Secretary shall register all changes that may occur after registration.

29. Qualification for registration of architects

- (1) A person shall not be registered as an architect unless he—
 - (a) is a resident in Zambia;
 - (b) has attained the age of twenty-one years;
 - (c) holds a bachelor of architecture degree or its equivalent recognised by the Council;
 - (d) has passed at least two years of post-graduate practical full-time employment under the supervision of a registered architect;
 - (e) has passed the professional competence examination conducted by the Council; and
 - (f) has paid the registration and membership fees prescribed by the Council.
- (2) Where a firm is registered by the Council, that firm shall file with the Registrar, a memorandum of practice signed by all the partners stating—
 - (a) the names and qualifications of each partner;

- (b) the nationality of the partners;
- (c) the name of the firm; and
- (d) the address of the registered office, the postal address, the telephone and the facsimile number of the firm.

30. Disqualification of architects

A person shall not qualify to be registered as an architect if—

- (a) he has been convicted of an offence involving dishonesty;
- (b) he has been adjudged or otherwise declared to be of unsound mind under any law in force in Zambia;
- (c) he is an undischarged bankrupt; or
- (d) in the case of a firm, the firm is not registered with the Institute.

31. Exemption from registration

Except for heads of departments at an institution approved by the Council, the following shall not be required to comply with this Part:

- (a) lecturers; and
- (b) persons undergoing training at a university or institute and approved by the Council.

32. Practising certificate and seal

- (1) The Council, on the recommendation of the Registration Committee, shall issue a practising certificate to every architect or company registered under section twenty-eight.
- (2) Every practising certificate issued under subsection (1) shall take effect on the day it is issued and shall continue in force until the 30th of June next following the date of issue.
- (3) The Council shall issue a seal to every registered architect or company issued with a practising certificate.
- (4) A practising certificate shall be renewed annually upon payment of such subscription fees as may be prescribed.

33. Cancellation of practising certificate

- (1) The Council may, after recommendation of the Registration Committee, cancel a practising certificate issued under section thirty-two if—
 - (a) it is proved to the satisfaction of the Registration Committee that the registration was obtained through fraud, misrepresentation or concealment of any material fact; or
 - (b) the person ceases to be a member of the Institute.
- (2) The Council shall before cancelling the practising certificate under subsection (1), give the registered architect, or firm, thirty days notice of the intention to cancel the practising certificate and give the registered architect an opportunity to show cause as to why his practising certificate should not be cancelled.
- (3) The Council shall, after cancelling the practising certificate issued under subsection (1) publish a notice of cancellation in the Gazette.
- (4) A registered architect whose practising certificate is cancelled shall surrender his seal to the Council.

34. Appeals

A person aggrieved by a decision made by the Council under this Part may within thirty days appeal to the Minister.

35. Offences relating to practising certificate

- (1) A person not registered by the Council, shall not—
 - (a) establish a practice as an architect or be a partner in any architectural firm;
 - (b) practise or offer his services as, or hold himself out to be, a qualified architect, consultant or advisor;
 - (c) adopt, use or exhibit the titles "architect", "registered architect", "project architect", "consulting architect" or any other term of similar description; or
 - (d) do anything likely to lead persons to infer that he is a registered architect.
- (2) Any person who contravenes the provisions of subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable upon conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding twelve months, or to both.
- (3) Where an offence under subsection (2) is committed by a body corporate, every director and manager of the body corporate shall be deemed to have committed the offence, unless the manager or director proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or consent.
- (4) Where a firm does any act which if done by an individual would be an offence under subsection (2), every partner in that firm shall be deemed to have committed the offence, unless he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or consent.

36. Offences relating to registration

- (1) A person shall be guilty of an offence if he—
 - (a) makes or causes to be made an unauthorised entry, alteration or erasure in a register, practising certificate, or in any copy thereof; or
 - (b) procures or attempts to procure for himself or any other person a practising certificate by means of fraud, misrepresentation or concealment of any material fact.
- (2) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (1) shall be liable, upon conviction, to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding twelve months, or to both.

Part V – Miscellaneous

37. Professional fees

A registered architect shall charge for professional services rendered at such rates as may be prescribed by the Minister, upon recommendation by the Council, by statutory instrument.

38. Regulations

The Minister may, upon recommendation by the Council, make Regulations—

- (a) setting out—
 - (i) the code of professional ethics and conduct; and

- (ii) the conditions of engagement of an architect; and
- (b) for the better carrying out of the provisions of this Act.

39. Savings

The savings and transitional provisions in the Second Schedule shall apply in respect of the Institute, Council and other matters.

40. Repeal of Cap. 825 of the 1971 edition

The Architects and Quantity Surveyors Act is hereby repealed.

First Schedule (Section 14)

The Council

1. Functions of the Council

The functions of the Council shall be to—

- (a) register names of members of the Institute; and
- (b) perform all the functions of the Institute.

2. Composition of Council

- (1) The Council shall consist of the following members:
 - (a) the President;
 - (b) the Vice-President;
 - (c) the Honorary-Secretary;
 - (d) the Honorary-Treasurer;
 - (e) a representative of the Attorney-General; and
 - (f) not more than seven other members.
- (2) Except for the member referred to in subsection (e), the members referred to in paragraph (1) shall be elected at the Annual General Meeting.
- (3) The President shall not serve more than two consecutive terms of one year each.

3. Election of members

The members of the Council shall be elected by secret ballot at an Annual General Meeting.

4. Tenure of office and vacancy

- (1) A member of the Council shall hold office for two years and may be re-elected for two more years.
- (2) Upon the expiration of the term for which a member is elected he shall continue to hold office until his successor has been elected, but in no case shall any extension of one term exceed three months.
- (3) The office of member shall become vacant—
 - (a) upon the member's death;

- (b) if he is adjudged bankrupt;
- (c) if he is adjudged or otherwise declared to be of unsound mind under any law in force in Zambia;
- (d) if he is absent, without prior approval of the Council from three consecutive meetings of the Council of which due notice was given to him; or
- (e) upon the expiry of not less than one month's notice, in writing, of that member's intention to resign given by the member to the President.

5. Seal of Council

- (1) The seal of the Council shall be such device as may be determined by the Council and shall be kept by the Honorary-Secretary.
- (2) The affixing of the seal shall be authenticated by the President or the Vice-President and one other person authorised in that behalf by the Council.
- (3) Any document purporting to be a document under seal of the Council shall be received in evidence and shall be deemed to be a document so executed or so issued, as the case may be, without further proof, unless the contrary is proved.

6. Proceedings of Council

- (1) Subject to the other provisions of this Act, the Council may regulate its own procedure.
- (2) The Council shall, for the transaction of business, meet at least twice in every calendar year at such places and at such times as the Chairperson may determine.
- (3) The quorum of the meeting of the Council shall be seven.
- (4) Subject to paragraph 5, the President shall, upon giving notice of not less than fourteen days, call a special meeting of the Council if not less than five members so request in writing.
- (5) If the urgency of any particular matter does not permit the giving of the notice referred to in subparagraph (4), a special meeting may be called upon giving shorter notice.
- (6) There shall preside at a meeting of the Council the President or, in the absence of the President, the Vice-President or, in the absence of both the President and the Vice-President, such member as the members present may elect for the purpose of that meeting.
- (7) A decision of the Council on any question shall be by a majority of the members present and voting at the meeting and in the event of an equality of votes the person presiding at the meeting shall have a casting vote in addition to that person's deliberative vote.
- (8) The Council may invite any person whose presence is in its opinion desirable, to attend and to participate in the deliberations of a meeting of the Council, but such a person shall have no vote.
- (9) The validity of any proceedings, act or decision of the Council shall not be affected by any vacancy in the membership of the Council or by any defect in the appointment of any member.
- (10) The Council shall cause minutes to be kept of the proceedings of every meeting of the Council and of every meeting of any committee established by the Council.

7. Disclosure of interest

- (1) If any person is present at a meeting of the Council at which any matter in which that person or that person's spouse is directly interested, he shall, as soon as practicable after the commencement of the meeting, disclose that interest and shall not, unless the Council otherwise directs, take part in any consideration or discussion of, or vote on, any question touching that matter.

- (2) A disclosure of interest made under sub-paragraph (1) shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting at which it is made.

8. Staff of Council

The Council may appoint, on such terms and conditions as it may determine, such other staff as it may consider necessary for the performance of the functions of Council.

Second Schedule (Section 39)

Savings and transitional provisions

1. Interpretation

In this Schedule—

"the former Board" means the Architect and Quantity Surveyors Board established under the Repealed Act; and

"the repealed Act" means the Architect and Quantity Surveyors Act.

[Cap. 825 of the old edition]

2. Former registered members to be members of Institute

A person who, immediately before the commencement of this Act, held office as one of the members of the former Board referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (1) of section three of the repealed Act, shall hold office, subject to this Act, as members of the Institute until replaced by persons elected for the purpose of paragraph two of the first Schedule to this Act.

3. Staff of former Board

Nothing in this Act affects the rights of any person employed by the former Board immediately before the commencement of this Act.

4. Liabilities and obligations

On the commencement of this Act, all property assets, rights, liabilities and obligations of the Zambia Institute of Architects as registered under the Societies Act shall vest in the Institute established by this Act.

[Cap. 119]

5. Proceedings

Any proceedings or cause of action instituted or pending by or against the Zambia Institute of Architects as registered under the Societies Act, immediately prior to the commencement of this Act, shall continue as if instituted under this Act.

[Cap. 119]

6. Conditions of engagement

Any architectural projects commissioned prior to the commencement of this Act under the conditions of engagement and scale of fees subsisting under the amended Act shall continue to apply until the projects are completed.
